

they don't like us. We're sorry to have to ask,

it's not like us to make a fuss.

Yours faithfully,

Another War

It wasn't just a war between the Germans and the Brits
it was a war between the vackies and the village kids.

It was a war of words, a war of stones,
it was a war that threatened broken bones.

It was village kids with faces of granite
as if they belonged to some other planet.

'Go back home, we don't want you here,
go back where you came from, disappear.'

It wasn't just a war between the Germans and the Brits
it was a war between the vackies and the village kids.

It was 'us and them', it was 'them and us',
it was mud fights causing family fuss.
