Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
LO: To use the simple past and present perfect correctly.	LO: To plan my diary entry.	LO: To use my plan to write my diary entry.	LO: I can use a marking ladder to check my own writing.	Pobble 365 Activity
Activity/Resources: Use the PowerPoint for Lesson 4 until slide 13 to refresh your memory about using the simple past and present tense correctly. Have a go at playing past tense penguins to help practise the spelling rules for simple past tense. Then, continue with the rest of the lesson to learn more about the perfect present tense. Task 1: Choose the sheet that matches your understanding to sort sentences into present perfect and simple past. Task 2: Choose the sheet that matches your understanding to complete the sentence using the correct tense. Cross out the words that are wrong to help you.	In this session today we are planing our diary entry. Our diary entry will be written as Boudicca, either before the battle or after. Can you remember the key features of a diary entry? Use the PowerPoint to refresh your memory. Then using the planning sheet, plan your diary entry. Don't forget to use what you have learnt about Boudicca to help you plan.	In this session we will be writing our diary entry. Remember we are writing this as Boudicca either before or after the battle. Using your plan, and all the word mats to support you, you need to write your diary entry. Don't forget all the key features you need in a diary.	In this session we are going to be editing our diary entry. Work through the PowerPoint to remind yourself of how we edit. Then using rhe marking ladder, evaluate your diary entry. Then ask someone at home to evaluate your writing. Then you need to think of ways you can improve your writing.	The Sky Ladder Complete activities.
Please submit your work through Tapestry.
