

After you've read and discussed two or three of the articles separately, discuss these extra questions:

- Which article do you find most informative and why? (Give examples to support your opinion.)
- Which article do you find most entertaining and why? (Give examples to support your opinion.)
- Which article do you think is the best written and why? (Give examples to support your opinion.)
- How would you present each of the stories on a TV news programme?
- Each of the articles has a theme of something or someone new in town. How might things change in these towns as a result of the new thing / person? Which of the events reported would have the most impact and why?
