LO: To plan the plot of my fable.

P	Success Criteria	T
	I know how a story is structured.
	I can plan the key events of my fable using a story hill.
	I can include a moral in the end of my story.

The buildup - What is the competition or problem?

The climax/resolution - How is the problem solved? What happens to the characters?

The beginning - set the scene and introduce your characters.

The ending -What lesson do the characters learn?
