

Underline the relative clause in this sentence:

Adam, who had terrible hay fever, couldn't stop sneezing.

a

Tick all the sentences that contain a subordinating conjunction:

Musa hates cabbage nor does he like sprouts.

Georgina took a deep breath before she dove into the pool.

Because he slipped on the ice, Jeremy needed his ankle bandaged.

d

Can you write the past tense of these words?

wear

say

b

Write one word into each section of this table:

adjectives	pronouns	proper nouns

e

Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up a determiner. Can you help him unjumble it?

l

a

l

c

Tick the sentence that uses the word 'balance' as a noun.

During the gymnastics lesson, Heidi held a fantastic balance before completing a forward roll.

Lenny tried hard to balance the egg on the spoon.

f

Add commas around the relative clause in this sentence:

a

Adam who had terrible hay fever couldn't stop sneezing.

Write the subordinating conjunction that fits best into each sentence:

d

Georgina took a deep breath _____ she dived into the pool.
_____ he slipped on the ice, Jeremy needed his ankle bandaged.

Can you write the past tense of these words?

b

strike

repay

Write two words into each section of this table:

e

adjectives	pronouns	proper nouns

Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up two determiners. Can you help him to unjumble them?

c

l

a

l

n

a

y

'Balance' can be used as a verb and a noun. Write a sentence where 'balance' is used as a noun.

f

Add a relative clause and the appropriate punctuation to this sentence:

Adam _____

 couldn't stop sneezing.

a

Write the subordinating conjunction that fits best into each sentence:

Georgina took a deep breath _____ she dived into the pool.
 _____ he slipped on the ice, Jeremy needed his ankle bandaged.

Now use 'after' in a sentence as a conjunction.

d

Can you write the past tense of these words?

wind

teach

b

Write three words into each section of this table:

adjectives	pronouns	proper nouns

e

Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up three determiners. Can you help him to unjumble them?

c

'Balance' can be used as a verb and a noun. Write two sentences: one where 'balance' is used as a verb and one where 'balance' is used as a noun.

f

