LO: to select words to create a poem.

A poem helps people to express thoughts and feelings.

Can you spot any patterns in the poem?

The sound collector

A stranger called this morning
Dressed all in black and grey
Put every sound into a bag
And carried them away

The whistling of the kettle
The turning of the lock
The purring of the kitten
The ticking of the clock

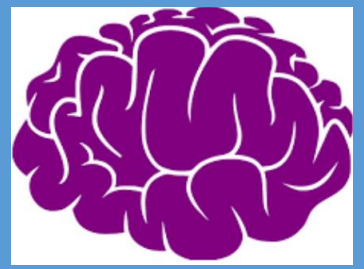
The popping of the toaster
The crunching of the flakes
When you spread the marmalade
The scraping noise it makes

The hissing of the frying pan
The ticking of the grill
The bubbling of the bathtub
As it starts to fill

The drumming of the raindrops
On the windowpane
When you do the washing-up
The gurgle of the drain
The crying of the baby
The squeaking of the chair
The swishing of the curtain
The creaking of the stair
A stranger called this morning
He didn't leave his name
Left us only silence
Life will never be the same

Roger McGough

The whistling of the kettle
The turning of the lock
The purring of the kitten
The ticking of the clock



What is making the noises in this section of the poem? Can you find the nouns?

What noises are they making? Can you spot any verbs that tell us what the kettle, lock, kitten and clock are doing?

Listen carefully to the sounds and see if you can fill in the lines of your own poem below. Use the word bank to help you.
