

Edit and Improve

10 mins

Read the text below and think about how it can be improved. Rewrite the text using adventurous vocabulary choices, adding details and creating interesting descriptions. You may wish to include some figurative language (such as metaphors, alliteration or personification) – it’s up to you!

It was a cold day. The ground was covered in ice and snow. I walked to the end of the road and I could see children building snowmen.
I could hear laughing. They looked happy.
The sky was dark so I knew that more snow was coming.
