Topic (Monday)

LO: To research the legacy of Queen Elizabeth I

Queen Elizabeth I died in 1603 and was the last Tudor monarch. During her reign, it was known as England's Golden Age. Also, lots of English explorers searched for new lands and treasure while she was Queen.

Use the websites above and complete research on Queen Elizabeth I from your own online searches.

You need to acknowledge Queen Elizabeth I's accomplishments as well as how she shaped England's future.

Decide how you would like to present your work (remember to check more than one website to confirm researched information).

Science (Tuesday)

LO: To investigate materials which will dissolve

Go through PowerPoint. Make sure you are aware of the difference between dissolving and melting (this can be a common confusion).

Complete the 'Soluble or Insoluble - Does It Dissolve?' Activity sheet. Don't worry if you do not have all of the materials listed. You could always substitute in others that you have at home (if needed).

Complete the 'Dissolving Investigation' Activity Booklet.

Can you work out the maximum solubility (the point where the material can't be dissolved anymore)? Think about the ratio or liquid to solid to obtain this. For example, 5 teaspoons of sugar dissolve in 50ml of water. When adding the sixth teaspoon of sugar, residue can be seen at the bottom of the glass.

Make predictions for your investigation. Were these proved or disproved?

PE (Wednesday)

Complete a Joe Wicks' 30 minute workout

French (Thursday)

LO: To identify key information by listening for significant vocabulary

Go through the PowerPoint and complete tasks

Activity sheets:

- My French History
- Mon Calendrier

PSHE (Friday)

RRSA: Introducing World Refugee Day

Watch two short films:

- Help Them Feel At Home (3mins 7seconds)
- Wind (8mins 40seconds)

How do these films relate to being a refugee?

Go through PowerPoint and select tasks to complete.
