Red	Writing: Can you make an Easter card for someone in your family and write it yourself? You could even post it (with mummy and daddy's permission!).	Red	Writing: Can you make an Easter card for someone in your family and write it yourself? You could even post it (with mummy and daddy's permission!). Try starting a diary for the week keeping a record of all the lovely things you have been doing with your family.
Blue	Maths: Practise writing your numbers from 1 - 20 on separate pieces of paper. Muddle them up and see if you can order them correctly. Use a number line (or ruler/tape measure) with mummy or daddy to check!	Blue	Maths: Can you see if you can build your very own 100 square? Be creative! Once you're finished check your work with a grown up to see if you got it right! Remember to think about which way around your letters go!
Orange	Art / DT: Collect some recycling and make a bridge. You could test your bridge to see how strong it is by placing different objects on it. How could you make your bridge stronger?	Orange	Art / DT: Collect some recycling and design a bridge thinking about the junk modelling pieces you have. Draw your design and label each part before making it - you could look at pictures of real bridges to help you. Test your bridge to see how strong it is by placing different objects on it. How could you make your bridge stronger?
Green	Technology: Play your favourite game on the computer or tablet!	Green	Computing: Play your favourite game on the computer or tablet!
Yellow	Phonics: Look at your sound mats in your phonics pack. Choose 3 sounds you find tricky and write them on post-it notes or small pieces of paper (each sound a few times!). Ask a grown up to hide them around the house and go on a sound hunt! Once you've found them all pop them in a container, pull one out and practise saying it. You could even time yourself! You could change the sounds over the week to keep challenging yourself!	Yellow	Phonics: Look at your sound mats in your phonics pack.
