

Starter: Odd one out

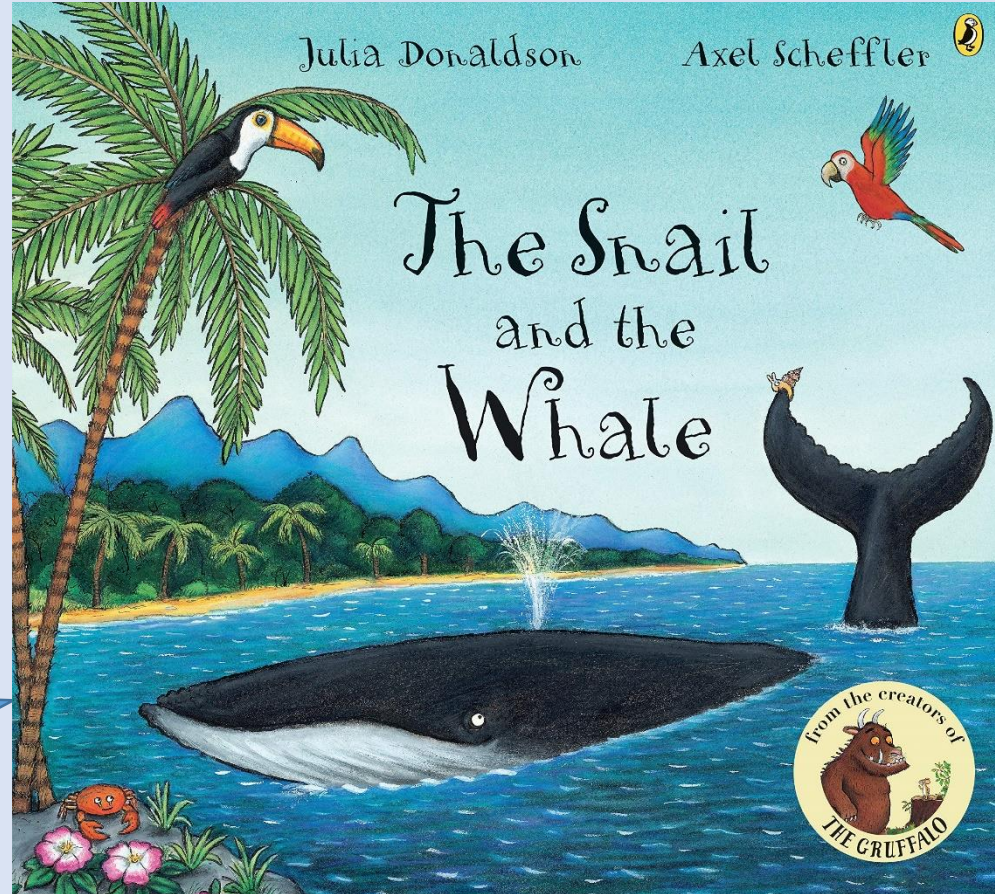

Let's read a book!

Remember:
Full stops = breath Different voices for characters

What do you think the characters are like?

Where is the blurb found?

Notice our characters
thoughts, words and actions.

Describe the characters personality?
What are they thinking?

What might the snail say?

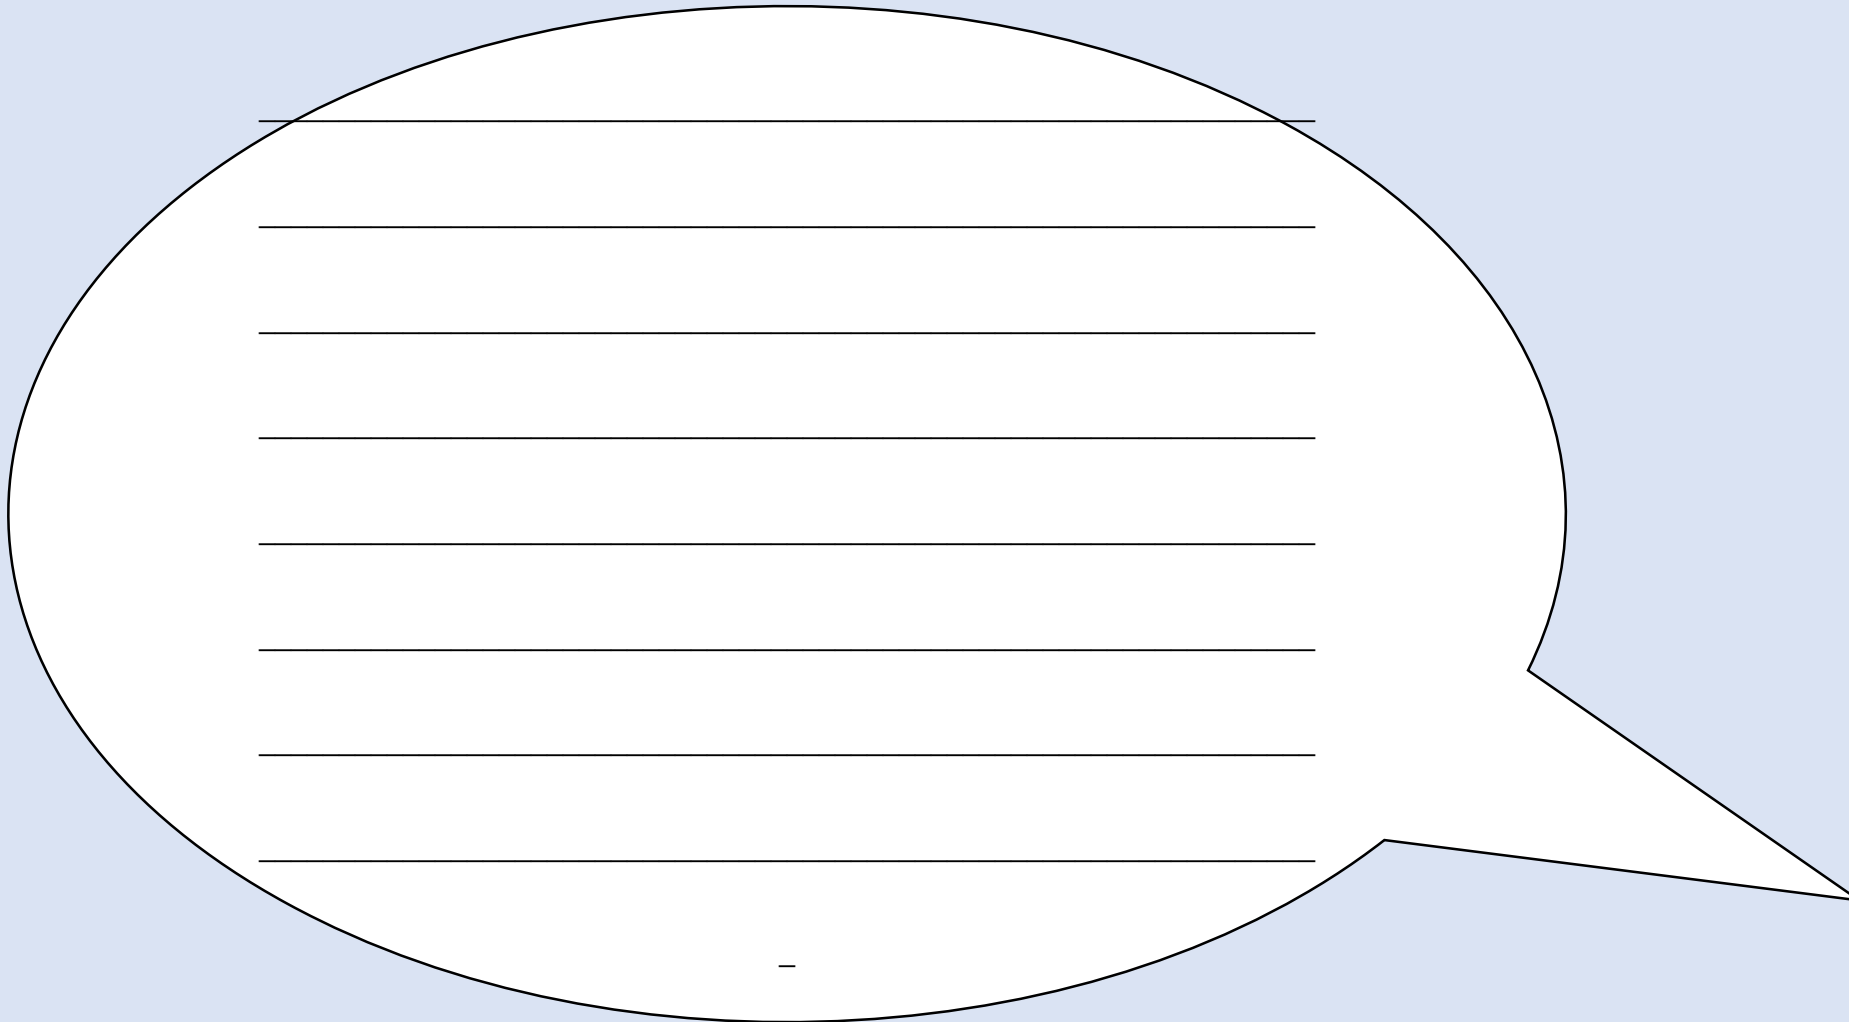

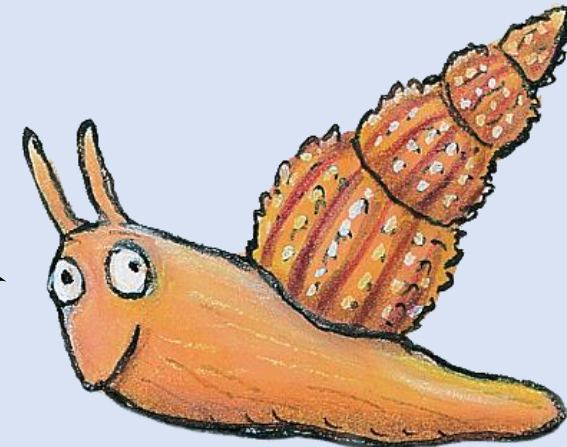

A large white speech bubble with a black outline, containing ten horizontal lines for writing. The bubble is positioned on the left side of the page, with its tail pointing towards the bottom right corner.

Task: In the speech bubble write what you think the snail may say in that situation.

Challenge: Using the post it notes, write what the other character would say back.

Plenary: Share what might the snail say?

A large white speech bubble with a black outline, containing ten horizontal lines for writing. The bubble is positioned on the left side of the page, with its tail pointing towards the bottom right.

Let's read the ending!

Did you like the ending?

