

Understanding the World

In Geography this week we are thinking about where we live and the features of our village or town.

Choose a window in your home and draw what you can see outside the window. Can you see trees? Other houses? A river? Fields? A road?

Challenge: Can you write a sentence about your picture? E.g. 'I can see...'

Please submit a photo of this work on Tapestry.

