Teaching input: Today we are looking at some books from Julia Donaldson. Watch the video of Miss Kelly reading 'Zog', and reveal your task.	Teaching input: Today we are going to look at the character Zog and find descriptive words in the book to help us describe him. Miss Kelly will model using the ideas to write a sentence.	Teaching input: We are going to summarise the story 'Zog' watch Miss Kelly model summarising the story into a storyboard and using past tense.	Teaching input: We will look at some of the words in 'Zog' and listen to how they rhyme. How many rhyming words can you hear when Miss Kelly reads zog?	Teaching input: Watch the teacher video to find out about today's task.
Activity: Make a video of you acting out/ or tell the next part of the story where Miss Kelly stops. Then watch the ending of the story, answer these questions: Did you like the ending? Why? Is it different/close to your ending? Do you think the author made a wise choice in choosing this ending?	Activity: Using the words, we have found in the text write a sentence to describe Zog. Challenge: Can you use alliteration in your sentence? Remember both words have to start with the same letter/sound.	Activity: Choose the storyboard your child feels most comfortable with. Remember you don't need to detailed but have the important information on your storyboard. Challenge: Draw your own pictures and write a sentence for each one.	Activity: Can you pair the rhyming words together? Once you have paired them, pick the pair you like the most. Using the rhyming pair have a go at making your own rhyming sentences. Challenge: Can you make a list of the rhyming pairs in the story.	Activity: Our theme today is hope, pick a video from 'Bedtime stories' or Miss Kelly's video to inspire you to write a story. Remember your capital letters and punctuation.
