

Year 1 Maths Week Commencing 10th May 2021

| Session 1                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Session 2                                                                                                                                                                                         | Session 3                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Session 4                                                                                          |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Year 1 LO: to represent multiplication using arrays.Must: use concrete resources.Should: use pictorial representations.Could: problem solve and reason using arrays. | Year 1 LO: to use arrays to solve multiplication calculations.Must: count rows and columns.Should: draw arrays.Could: solve multiplication word problems. | Year 1 LO: to draw arrays to solve multiplication calculations.Must: counts rows and columns.Should: draw an array accurately.Could: solve mixed multiplication problems. | Mental Maths assessment                                                                     |
| Input:Work through the multiplication Powerpoint. Work through some questions with an adult.                                                                                                      | Input:Work through the multiplication Powerpoint. Work through some questions with an adult.                                                                                           | Input:Work through the multiplication Powerpoint. Work through some questions with an adult.                                                                                                           |                                                                                                    |
| Task:Choose the worksheet that you feel most confident with. Start with something you feel confident with and then move onto the next level.                                                      | Task:Choose the worksheet that you feel most confident with. Start with something you feel confident with and then move onto the next level.                                           | Task:Choose the worksheet that you feel most confident with. Start with something you feel confident with and then move onto the next level.                                                           | Task:Complete the mental maths assessment. Ask a grown up to read the questions to you. |
| Share on Tapestry                                                                                                                                                                                            | Share on Tapestry                                                                                                                                                                                 | Share on Tapestry                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Share on Tapestry                                                                                  |