Take a look at today's presentation.	Today we are going to compare the stories from Julia Donaldson. 'Room on the broom' and 'Snail and the whale'. Reflect on the different features we have looked at: - Characters - Repetitive phrases - Rhyming - Alliteration Take a look at today's presentation.
Task: Watch today's virtual workshop. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8pEQPCu6OvY	Task: Have a think what would the snail say to the whale when he is washed up on the shore? What would he say to the school children? Do you think the snail will be kind and help or not? Challenge: Can you write back what the other character would say?	Task: Choose the worksheet your child feels the most comfortable. Practical: Cut the sentences up and connect using and. Remember to check if it makes sense. Activity: Rewrite the sentences using and to connect. Remember to remove the capital letter and full stop.	Task: With a grown up read the passage from 'The snail and the whale'. Highlight the repetitive phrases and rhyming words. Challenge: Can you write your own sentences using the repetitive phrase 'The tiny snail'.	Task: Using the grid write examples of the features from each story to compare. e.g. Characters= talking animals, witch, dog, cat, frog, dragon Challenge: Write a sentence comparing using the conjunction 'but'.
