Activity/Resources: Listen to Chapter 2 of The Iron Man until the line "they were certain now that they'd get him." (Up to 8:44 The Iron Man - Chapter 2 by Ted Hughes - YouTube) Create a bullet point summary of the key events in the first part of this chapter. Tomorrow, we are writing a diary extract from the perspective of Hogarth. Can you brainstorm some key ideas to use in your diary tomorrow. Think about what Hogarth might have been feeling and thinking when he first saw TIM and how he might have been feeling when the townspeople believed him. Think about what he might think is going to happen after they set the trap. You can use the diary checklist to help plan your writing.	Activity/Resources: Using your plan from last lesson, can you write a diary extract in character as Hogarth using the events from the first half of Chapter 2. Remember to include what Hogarth might think is going to happen next. You should be writing in first person using 'I', 'we', 'my' etc. Use the checklist to evaluate and edit your work.	Activity/Resources: Listen to the rest of Chapter 2 of The Iron Man (From 8:44 onwards The Iron Man - Chapter 2 by Ted Hughes - YouTube) Create a bullet point summary of the key events in the second part of this chapter. Tomorrow, we are writing a diary extract from the perspective of Hogarth after he has carried out his plan. Can you brainstorm some key ideas to use in your diary tomorrow. Think about what Hogarth might have been feeling and thinking when the original plan didn't work and the townspeople gave up. How did his feelings change between when he carried out his plan, and when he finally caught TIM. You can use the diary checklist to help plan your writing.	Activity/Resources: Using your plan from last lesson, can you write a diary extract in character as Hogarth using the events from the second half of Chapter 2. Remember to include what Hogarth might think is going to happen next. Will he regret his plan and try to free TIM? You should be writing in first person using 'I', 'we', 'my' etc. Use the checklist to evaluate and edit your work.
