

Jupiter and Oak English Plan Year 2 Week Commencing 8th February 2021.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
LO: To explore a variety of poems. LO: To understand the structure and meaning of a shape poem.	LO: To effectively use alliteration. LO: To understand and use similes effectively.	LO: To fluently read a piece of text. LO: To collect vocabulary from a piece of text.	LO: To write a shape poem inspired by India.	Exciting Writing. Assessment piece
Teaching Input: Watch the PowerPoint video.	Teaching Input: Watch the PowerPoint Video.	Teaching Input: Watch the teaching video of Miss Smith explaining today's learning. You could also watch this video of Pie Corbett explaining shape poems. Pie Corbett - Writing a shape poem	Teaching Input: Watch the modelling video.	Teaching Input: Using what we have learnt about India, you need to write your own story. Use the word banks that have been uploaded onto the website to help you. This is your opportunity to show us what you have learnt about India and from your English lessons. Please complete this without help from an adult.
Activity: The aim for this week is for you to create your own shape poem inspired by India. Your activity today is to look at a variety of shape poems. Can you discuss or write down what you notice in these poems? Can you tell me which poem is your favourite and why?	Activity: Complete the alliteration and simile worksheets attached. Then can you write down your own alliteration and similes relating to India. You can then use these in your shape poem at the end of the week. Extension: Can you think of alliteration or similes for	Activity: Using the text linked on the website, upload a video of you reading this piece of text onto tapestry. Then using the same text, can you collect some vocabulary you will want to use in your poem. You can highlight some words you may use in your poem. Extension: Using images and espresso clips, could you research what you will be writing your	Activity: Today you will be writing your own shape poem. There are some template shapes on the website, or you can draw your own. Remember to include your exciting adjectives, alliteration, and similes. Extension: Learn and perform your poem. Please upload this work onto Tapestry.	Activity: Independently, write a story using your knowledge of India. Remember to apply your skills you have learnt including speech punctuation, similes and alliteration, and expanded noun phrases. Please upload your improved work onto Tapestry.

	items you can see in your house or on a walk?	poem about and write down some descriptive language, including similes and alliteration, that you can add to the vocabulary you have collected from the text.
--	---	---	--	--

Please submit your work through Tapestry.

Phonics Activity for the week:

Complete the sheet attached. This week's focus is on adding 's or s.