

Year 4 Maths Week Commencing 1st March 2021

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
LO: To practise a written method for addition	LO: To add two 4 digit numbers	LO: To practise a written method for subtraction	LO: To subtract two 4 digit numbers	Maths Whizz 60 minutes
Teaching input: Mr Nelson models different methods for calculating addition questions. These include: - Number lines - Partitioning - Expanded column method - Compact column method	Teaching input: Mr Nelson shares a PowerPoint looking at addition calculations using different representations. This PowerPoint includes: - Fluency questions - Reasoning questions - Problem solving questions	Teaching input: Mr Nelson models different methods for calculating subtraction questions. These include: - Number lines - Partitioning - Expanded column method - Compact column method	Teaching input: Mr Nelson shares a PowerPoint looking at subtraction calculations using different representations. This PowerPoint includes: - Fluency questions - Reasoning questions - Problem solving questions
Activity/Resources: 3 level differentiation based on your understanding of the PowerPoint video	Activity: 3 level differentiation for both fluency and reasoning/ problem solving Select level from understanding of video Self-mark work (answer sheet provided on website)	Activity: 3 level differentiation based on your understanding of the PowerPoint video	Activity: 3 level differentiation for both fluency and reasoning/ problem solving Select level from understanding of video Self-mark work (answer sheet provided on website)
Work to be submitted to your class teacher		Work to be submitted to your class teacher

Please use Tapestry to upload work that your teacher would like to see. If you do not use Tapestry, please email to school office.

office@greatstaughton.cambs.sch.uk or office@kimboltonprimaryacademy.cambs.sch.uk