Think about why the characters behaved the way that they did. Could this be: - driven by love? - family expectations? - this is how males / females behave? - consequences of previous actions This is the same as yesterday, but today you will compare your two different characters.	Near the end of the story of Romeo and Juliet a message/ letter was written for Romeo explaining the plan for faking Juliet's death. However, Romeo did not receive this letter. Think about what information would be in the letter – this could be written either from Juliet herself of the friar. You need to include the reasons for the deception as well as the planned intention (with reasons) of Romeo and Juliet for the future.
	Activity/Resources: Write a short character study. Edit your work, thinking about the quality of your sentences, your grammar and whether you have used enough detail.	Activity/Resources: Write a short character study (the same as yesterday). Compare character studies and identify possible similarities and differences between the two characters.	Activity/Resources: To write the letter either from the friar or Juliet to Romeo. The letter needs to include the content seen above. Extension: How do you think Romeo will respond?
