The Diamond Learning Partnership Trust operates across three Local Authority areas, which may result in slight variations in term dates among its schools. Parents and carers are encouraged to consult the relevant school websites to obtain the most current and specific information.

While the Trust has the discretion to determine the number of school days each academic year, including the option to schedule fewer than the standard 190 school days, we have opted not to exercise this flexibility. The Trust seeks to maximise learning opportunities by adhering to published guidelines, ensuring all pupils benefit from time in school.

Kind regards,

Jonathan Lewis - CEO
